

Many students, including myself, struggle to maintain focus and stay on task while studying and completing assignments. This is a problem because it can lead to decreased productivity and lower grades. The causes of this issue include environment as well as presence of smartphones with social media being a greater presence now.